

If you are in need of help with food and/or clothing:

The Food 'n Friends schedule for meals is here: <https://attleboroareainterfaithcollaborative.org/hunger/>

Lenore's Food Pantry (43 South Washington St., 508-699-0104) is open Monday and Friday mornings in the basement of North Attleboro Town Hall. Must be North Attleboro resident, and sign up.

Plainville United Methodist Church (16 East Bacon St.) has a food pantry available on Wednesdays from 6:15-7 p.m. https://www.plainvilleumc.net/Food_Pantry.htm Must be a resident of Plainville. No clothing.

First United Methodist (20 Hoppin Hill) has a Little Free Food Pantry (no clothing) just off the parking lot for smaller, immediate and discreet needs. Take what you need, leave what you can.

Our Open Umbrella and Grace Episcopal Church sponsor Fuel for the Weekend, a program to provide weekend meal and snacks, as well as toiletries, to help bridge the gap when students are not in school. Sign up required. <https://www.ouropenumbrella.org/>

Centenary United Methodist Church in Attleboro (15 Sanford Street) has a thrift shop in its lower level open Wednesdays 9-2 and Saturdays 9-12. The shop includes gently used clothing, toys, kitchenware, small furniture and books. <https://attleboromethodist.com/event-listing/>

The Murray Unitarian Universalist Church (505 North Main Street, Attleboro) Thrift Shop sells gently used clothing for women and men, as well as, small housewares, linens, jewelry, books, and giftware, all at bargain prices. Hours are 10-4 Saturdays. <https://murrayuuchurch.org/thrift-shop/>

If you have clothing to donate, please consider:

Four Corners Community Chapel (200 Angell Road, Cumberland, 401-333-6171). There is a 24-hour clothing drop off shed for second-chance clothing, belts, shoes, purses, blankets, sheets, curtains and pillowcases.

Good Shepherd Lutheran (60 May St., Attleboro) has a drop-off clothing bin.

Centenary United Methodist Church (15 Sanford Street, Attleboro) has a thrift shop in its lower level open Wednesdays 9-2 and Saturdays 9-12. The shop includes gently used clothing, toys, kitchenware, small furniture and books. Donations welcome. <https://attleboromethodist.com/event-listing/>

Murray Unitarian Universalist Church (505 North Main Street, Attleboro) Thrift Shop accepts donations of clean and in good condition clothing, shoes, hats, scarves, for all ages. They also accept small electronics, if they are working, clean linens (please tell us what size they are), jewelry, books, and other household items. If you can still wear it or use it, donate it. No TVs, computers, or toys, please. <https://murrayuuchurch.org/thrift-shop/>

If you have food to donate, please consider:

Donations for Lenore's Food Pantry (43 South Washington St., 508-699-0104) may be made Monday through Wednesday 8-4, Thursdays 8-6 and Fridays 8-12 in basement of North Attleboro Town Hall. Non-perishable food items, checks, gift cards or personal care items, are accepted any time the Board of Health is open. Checks should be made out to "Town Emergency Fund."

Shelf-stable, unexpired items may be placed directly inside the Little Free Food Pantry at First United Methodist Church (20 Hoppin Hill).